“I’m from Texas, so I like a lot of ice in my drinks. I have a mini-fridge with a freezer in my Airstream, which helps.”

The Drinks

Camping without cocktails? Not happening. Check out what Miranda mixes up.

“For the morning, a bottle of bubbly (Platinum by Red 55 Winery is my fave) and OJ with a frozen strawberry.”

“I like frozen fruit with vodka and grapefruit juice or coconut LaCroix. It’s a good drink for summer, and it at least has some water in it. Hydrate while you dehydrate—wink!”

FIND YOUR FUN

“Camping on a river or lake, where there are water activities, is one of my favorites. My girlfriends and I take a yearly trip to the Guadalupe River in Texas. We float by day and sit around the fire at night. I love being outdoors and spending time in a low-key setting.”

The Grub

Round out Miranda’s fave combo—Tito’s and Cheetos, yes!—with her recs for super-simple, yummy bites.

Peppered Turkey

“From the deli and a lot of good cheeses for sandwiches.”

Breakfast Tacos

“Bring a little cooktop, so they’re fresh in the morning.”

S'mores

“So easy, quick, and totally campy!”

Roasted Weenies

“You gotta have ketchup, mustard, and relish!”

To go healthier, you can use chicken sausage and try tortillas instead of buns.
